

St. Johns River Bartram Frolic

Come frolic on the Riverfront
Sept. 29, 2018

Passport to the Past

Join us on a trip through history with the Passport to the Past, where activities throughout the festival guide youth through our River's storied past.

Living History

History comes alive on our river! Meet William Bartram, The Long Warrior "King of the Seminoles," Trader Job Wiggins, Fort Mose soldiers, Colonists, and inhabitants of the Seminole village that lived along the 18th century river.

Trail Activities

Paddle, bike, and hike along historic trails and riverways with spectacular natural backdrops, and enjoy riverboat tours on the Pride of Palatka II. Don't miss out on the Heart Health 5k Run/Walk!

Plus, Bartram art exhibits, artisan vendors, the Chalk Explosion, great food, and more!
